

Sailing Singles Club of Southwest Florida

Application for Membership

Please complete the following application, both sides, and submit, along with your check, to the Membership Chairman. Your application will be reviewed by the Board of Directors at the next meeting and you will be notified of the outcome of the review.

Membership in Sailing Singles requires that you have the physical ability and sufficient education/experience to be an active sailor. Coast Guard, Power Squadron courses and/or club training will fulfill the education requirement. Additionally, to remain an active member, all members must participate in at least two club activities per year.
